

Your Trusted Partner for Cargo
Protection & Load Securement Solutions

SHURCO

Built from the Ground Up. Leading the World Forward.

For generations, our people have brought care, experience, and ingenuity to designing purpose-built load securement solutions shaped by the realities of daily work. What began as Wahpeton Canvas Company has grown into Shurco—a trusted global leader with a deep legacy in the United States, an established presence in the UK, and a continued commitment to expanding worldwide.

We carry that legacy forward every day—helping work move forward, standing behind our products, and building relationships grounded in trust.

Vision

Powering global progress through advanced systems and controls innovations for cargo protection and securement.

Mission

Manufacturing industry-defining solutions that are the preferred choice to solve real-world problems and fuel our customers’ success.

Values

Integrity in Every Action

We do what’s right with unwavering accountability, transparency, and respect. These are at the heart of our work, how we collaborate, and how we lead.

Environment to Thrive

People are our strength. Our culture empowers personal growth toward a unified cause—because when our team thrives, so does Shurco and everyone we serve.

Customer-driven, Always

We go the extra mile by actively listening and closely collaborating with all stakeholders. The result: purpose-built offerings and trusted partnerships that drive long-term success and sustainable growth.

Built for What’s Next, Now

We advance practical solutions with technological intent—challenging assumptions, improving processes, and shaping future progress.

Driving Progress Across Industries.

Agriculture, construction, waste and recycling, flatbed, and rail operations rely on Shurco every day. From rugged farms to active job sites and recycling centers—on the road or by rail—Shurco is a trusted partner for dependable load securement and cargo protection, helping keep equipment on the road, work on schedule, and operations running day after day.

Complete Solutions. One Tried and True Partner.

Engineering & Manufacturing

Heavy-duty tarps, electric kits, manual and automatic systems are all designed for lasting durability and maximized uptime.

Smart Systems & Controls

Integrated arm tarp, pull tarp, side-to-side, cable, and roll-off systems combine automation and intelligent control to simplify operation, improve efficiency, and enhance safety across every application.

Customization & Innovation

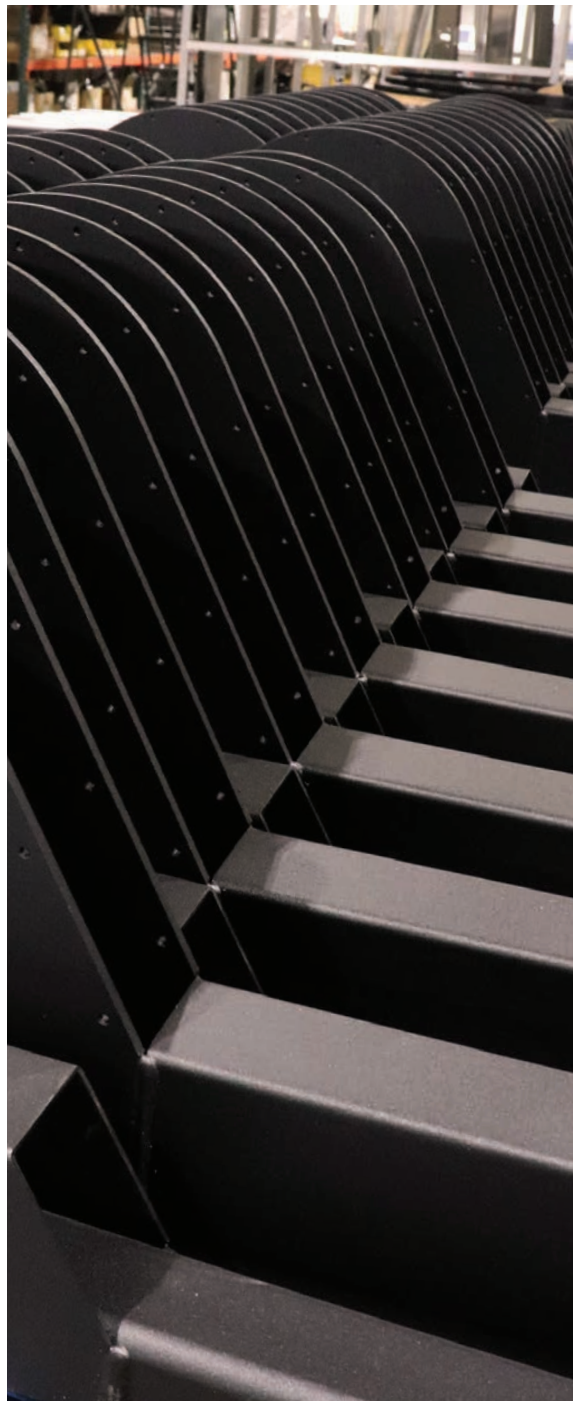

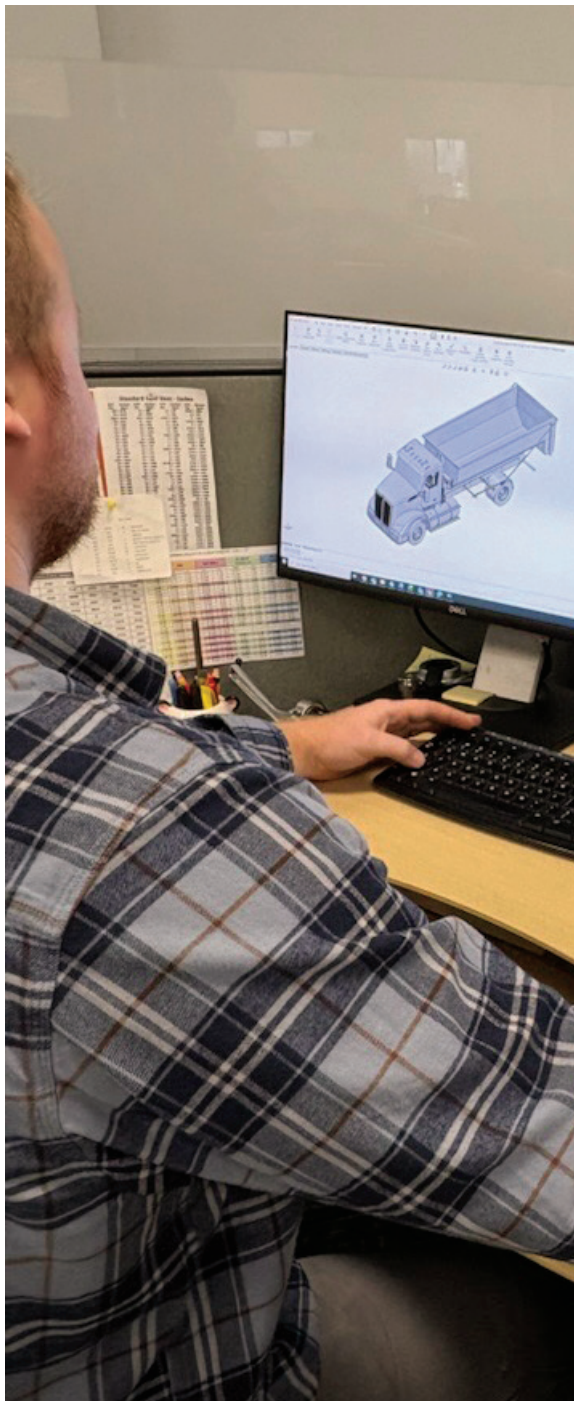

Solutions are tailored—from retrofit kits to custom-designed systems—meeting diverse operational needs.

Support & Service Network

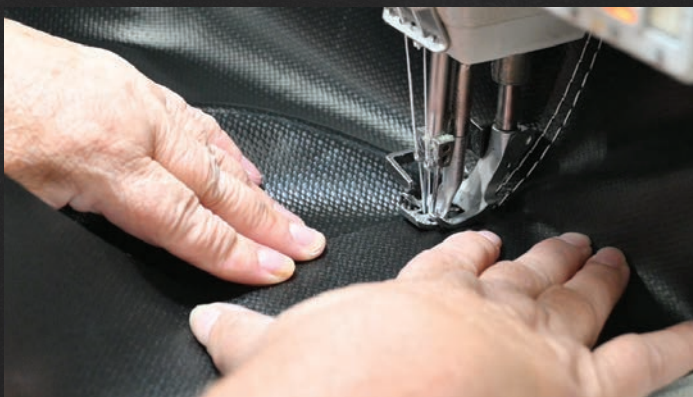

A nationwide network of service centers and distributors ensures local support from Shurco experts.

Aftermarket Solutions

A full line of multi-OEM tarp parts and cargo control products help extend asset life, maintain uptime, and ensure safe, secure hauling—keeping fleets and operators moving with confidence.

Built on Hard Work.
Focused on Our Future.

Proven Daily.
Trusted Everywhere.

Built on Trust

"With Shurco, we get more than a tarp or system. We get solutions built on trust. Their team truly cares, listens to the industry, innovates without cutting corners, and consistently shows up for us and our customers."

Reliability that Carries Forward

"Fast to meet demand, they adapt with the times, and most importantly, they are reliable. We trust their products completely, and that trust is passed on to our customers every day."

A True Partnership

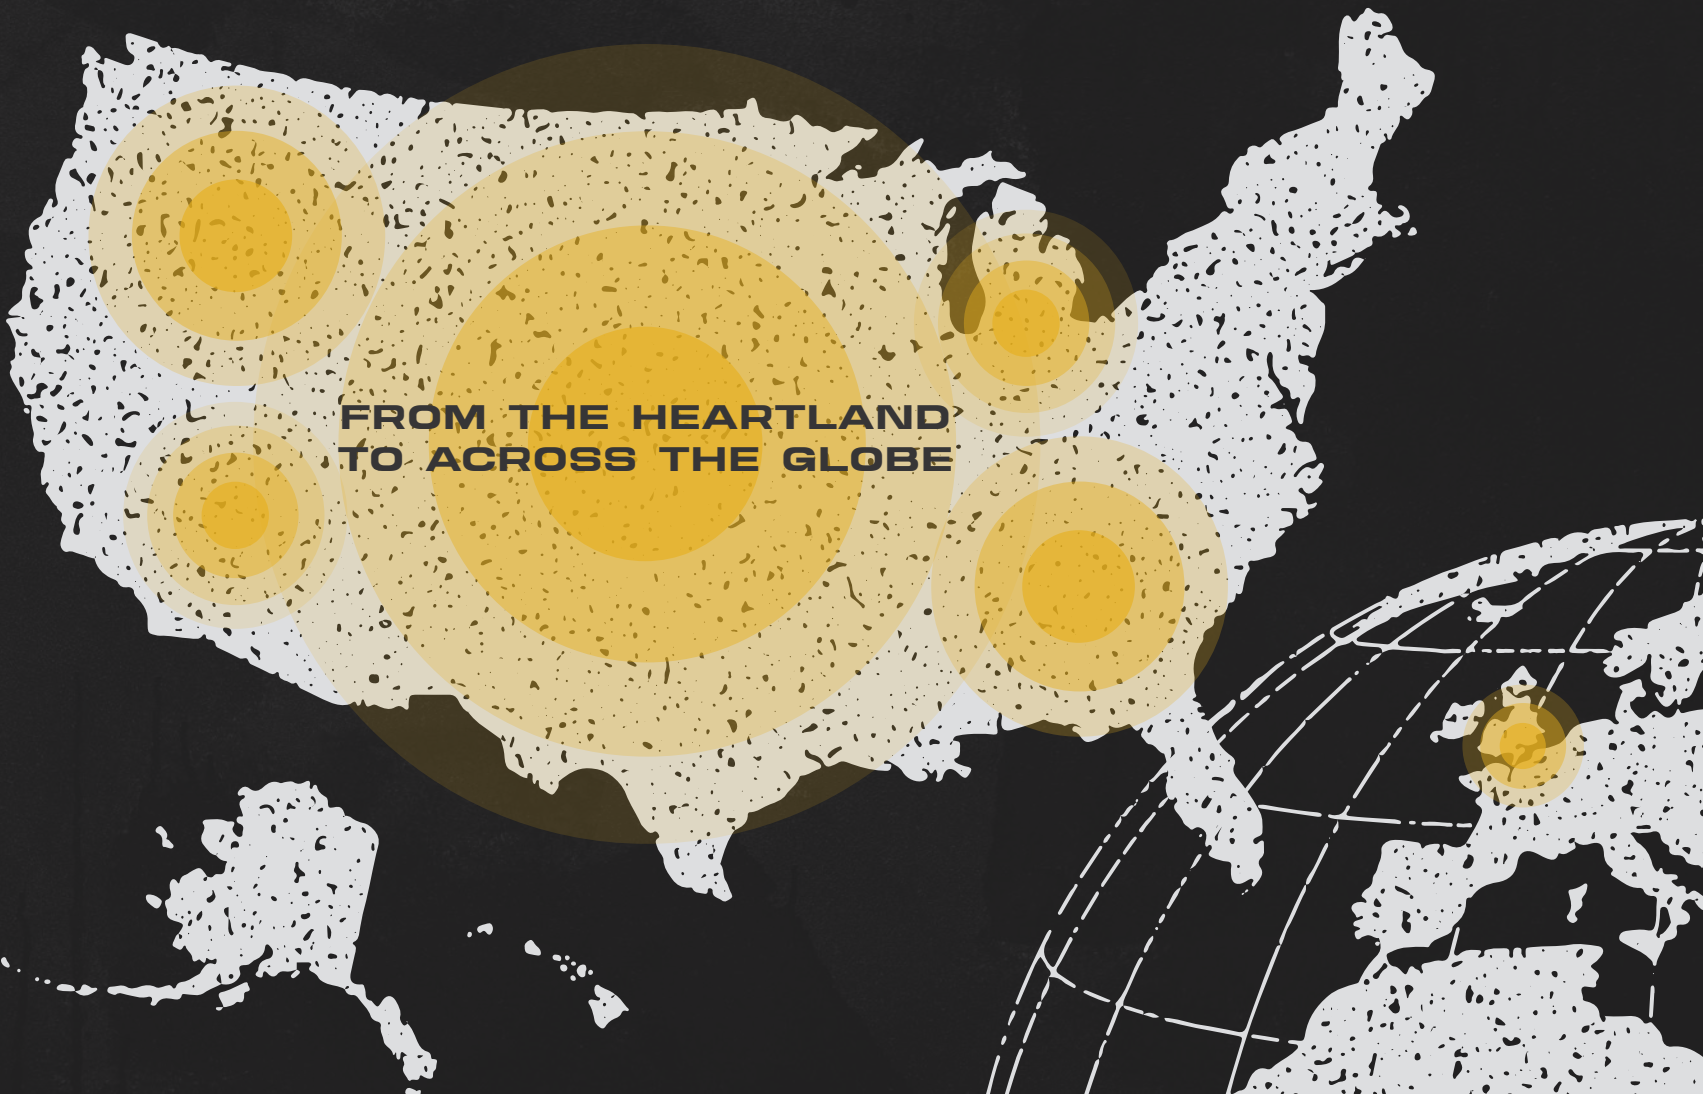

"We found a true partner in Shurco. Their support, product lineup, and commitment to service set them apart. They understand what real partnership means, and we are proud to work with them."

Support that Raises the Bar

"Shurco is the full package. Quality products backed by a knowledgeable and responsive support team. When challenges arise, they respond quickly. This is industry support you can count on, and Shurco makes doing business easy."

Rooted in Mutual Respect

"Shurco is like family. They represent people, support, and respect. We promote and sell Shurco because the quality and service are top notch. As a business owner, I feel respected, and that respect goes both ways."
